

United States Sentencing Commission

U. S. Sentencing Commission 2006 Annual Report

Table of Contents

U.S. Sentencing Commission - Year In Review

Chapter One - Commission Overview

Introduction

A Brief History of Federal Sentencing Reform

Agency Overview

Commissioners

Organization

Staffing

Budget and Expenditures

Chapter Two - The Sentencing Guidelines

Guideline Amendments

Amendments Promulgated

Amendments in Response to Congressional Directives and Enacted
Legislation

Other Promulgated Amendments

Policy Issues

Terrorism

Firearms

Compassionate Release

Crime Victims' Act

Steroids

Guideline Application Issues

Immigration

Intellectual Property

Miscellaneous Laws

Advisory Groups

Practitioners Advisory Group

Probation Officers Advisory Group

Assistance to Congress

Chapter Three - Legal Issues

Introduction

U.S. Supreme Court Decisions on Sentencing Issues

Decisions

Petitions for Certiorari Granted

Decisions of the United States Courts of Appeals

Calculating the Guideline Range

Motions for Guideline Departures

Reasonableness Review

Chapter Four - Guideline Training and Education

Internet Web Site

Public Information

Publications and Training Materials

Training

Training New Appointees

Fifteenth Annual National Seminar on Federal Sentencing Guidelines

Circuit and District-Based Guideline Education

Organizational Guidelines Training

"High-Tech" Approaches to Training

HelpLine

Temporary Assignment Programs

Chapter Five - Research

Statutory Requirements

Document Submission

Data Collection

Data Collection Issues

Summary of 2006 Findings

Sentencing Individual Offenders

Offender Characteristics

Guideline Cases

Guideline Application

Sentences Within the Guideline Range and Outside the Range

Drug Cases

Immigration Cases

Organizational Sentencing Practices

Changes from Prior Annual Reports

Offense Characteristics

Offender Characteristics

Sanctions Imposed

Appeals Data

Summary of Information Received

Issues and Guidelines Appealed

Reasonableness

Overall Offense and Offender Characteristics

Data Analyses for the Courts and Congress